CONFLICT OF INTEREST

It is the responsibility of University Enterprises Corporation at CSUSB (“UEC”) to ensure that all Board Members sign a Conflict of Interest for July 1, 2014, through June 30, 2015.

The California Education Code, Sections 89906-89909 (see attached) indicates that no member of the Board of Directors shall be financially interested in any contract or other transaction entered into by the Board of Directors that is not in accordance with these codes.

As a member of UEC’s Board of Directors, you are required to follow the California Education Codes, Sections 89906-89909.

The following are examples of relationships which are specifically deemed not permissible:

a) Any contract, other than employment contract, directly between UEC and a UEC Board member.

b) Any contracts between UEC and a partnership or unincorporated association in which a UEC Board Member is a partner, owner, or holder, directly or indirectly, of a proprietorship interest.

c) Any contract between UEC and a for-profit corporation in which a UEC Board Member is the owner or holder, directly or indirectly, of five (5) percent or more of the outstanding common stock.

There are other relationships, including the following, which are permissible:

d) Contracts between UEC and a for-profit corporation in which a UEC Board Member is the owner or holder, directly or indirectly, of less than five (5) percent of the outstanding common stock.

e) Contracts between UEC and a for-profit corporation on whose Board of Directors a UEC Board Member serves and such member is the owner or holder, directly or indirectly, of less than five (5) percent of the outstanding common stock.

f) Contracts between UEC and a nonprofit corporation on whose Board of Directors a UEC Board Member participates.

I have read the California Education Code Sections 89906-89909 and the interpretation of the law and signify, by my signature, that I do not now have a material financial interest in any contract or other transaction to UEC is a party. Should such a conflict arise, I agree to notify UEC’s Executive Director.

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

89906. No member of the governing board of an auxiliary organization shall be financially interested in any contract or other transaction entered into by the board of which he is a member, and any contract or transaction entered into in violation of this section is void.

89907. No contract or other transaction entered into by the governing board of an auxiliary organization is void under the provisions of Section 89906, nor shall any member of such board be disqualified or deemed guilty of misconduct in office under said provisions, if the circumstances specified in the following subdivisions exist:

   (a) The fact of such financial interest is disclosed or known to the governing board and noted in the minutes, and the governing board thereafter authorizes, approves, or ratifies the contract or transaction in good faith by a vote sufficient for the purpose without counting the vote or votes of such financially interested member or members, and

   (b) The contract or transaction is just and reasonable as to the auxiliary organization at the time it is authorized or approved.

89908. The provisions of Section 89907 shall not be applicable if the circumstances specified in any of the following subdivisions exist:

   (a) The contract or transaction is between an auxiliary organization and a member of the governing board of that auxiliary organization.

   (b) The contract or transaction is between an auxiliary organization and a partnership or unincorporated association of which any member of the governing board of that auxiliary organization is a partner or in which he is the owner or holder, directly or indirectly, of a proprietorship interest.

   (c) The contract or transaction is between an auxiliary organization and a corporation in which any member of the governing board of that auxiliary organization is the owner or holder, directly or indirectly, of 5 percent or more of the outstanding common stock.

   (d) A member of the governing board of an auxiliary organization is interested in a contract or transaction within the meaning of Section 89906, and without first disclosing such interest to the governing board at a public meeting of the board, influences or attempts to influence another member or members of the board to enter into the contract or transaction.

89909. It is unlawful for any person to utilize any information, not a matter of public record, which is received by him by reason of his membership on the governing board of an auxiliary organization, for personal pecuniary gain, regardless of whether he is or is not a member of the governing board at the time such gain is realized.
